NUMB. 3052

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1744.

Milan, December 31.

WE have already given the Commiſſaries Names appointed by the Queen of Hungary, for delivering up to his Sardinian Majeſty the ſeveral Diſtricts yielded him by the Treaty of Worms; we ſhall now give a Liſt of the Commiſſaries appointed by that Monarch to receive the Countries that have been thus ceded. For the Plaiſantin, Count Mouſu, heretofore Intendant-General of the Duchy of Savoy; and the Marquis Baſca, Referendary in the Court of Requeſt; for the Milaneze, the Preſident Count de Praſormo, and the Count d'Aſſano, Referendary in the Court of Requeſts. There is likewiſe an Inſpector for the Plaiſantin, which is the Marquis de Santo Julio; and another for the Milaneze, [viz. the Marqu's Rivarolo. Theſe Lords are to meet at Placentia and Vigevanno, Cities that are as yet in the Hands of the Queen, but which are to be yielded up by this Treaty. The Ceſſion of theſe Places is to be made by the 10th of next Month; and then it is to be hoped we ſhall have no-body to diſpute with but the French and Spaniards, and have alſo the Aſſiſtance of our Friends.

Prague, January 8. On the 2d of this Month we ſung Te Deum in all the Churches of our three Cities, by way of Thankſgiving; becauſe, on the ſame Day laſt Year, this City was entirely deliver'd from French Troops, and returned to the Obedience of her lawful Sovereign. Beſides the Definitive Treaty lately concluded between the Courts of Vienna and Saxony, a Cartel has likewiſe been eſtabliſhed for delivering up Deſerters. On the firſt Day of the new Year 500 Recruits, all brisk young Fellows, ſet out from hence for Italy; and we propoſe to ſend as many Thouſands very ſpeedily into Bavaria, in order to reinforce the Regiments that have ſpent their Winter in that Electorate.

Vienna, January 10. The Count d'Eſterhaſi, our Miniſter at the Court of Dreſden, is expected from thence every Moment, with a Ratification of the Treaty lately concluded with that Court. The Marquis de Botta has been, for ſome time, cloſely employed in drawing up a Vindication of his Conduct during his Reſidence at the Court of Petersburgh; but receiving an Account of the injurious Aſperſions caſt upon him, by reaſon of his appearing very little Abroad, he immediately took a Reſolution of ſhewing himſelf in all publick Places; and it is now ſaid, that an Expreſs lately arrived from Peterſburgh, with Diſpatches very favourable to his Cauſe; Time will inform us what Credit is due to this Report. The mighty Preparations that were made for, and the numerous Feaſts that have been given, ſince the Marriage of Prince Charles of Lorrain with the Archduchеſs, do not at all hinder the Councils held for carrying on the War. Conferences are held regularly for this Purpoſe every Monday and Friday, at the Palace of Marſhal Konigſegg; and it is certain, that we ſhall have more Troops in the Field by the 1ſt of April, than we have had ſince the beginning of this War.

On the 6th Inſtant, being the Feaſt of Epiphany, his Royal Highneſs the Duke, Co-Regent, as Grand Maſter of the Order of the Golden Fleece, accompanied by all the Knights of that moſt ancient and illuſtrious Order in this City, went, about Nine o'Clock in the Morning, to the Aulic Church of the Auguſtins, where he aſſiſted while High Maſs was performed by Count Erdodi, Biſhop of Neutra in Hungary; after which, he made the following Promotion of new Knights, and then returned in the ſame Ceremony to the Palace Royal, where he dined in Publick with the Knights, who take Place according to the ſubſequent Account, enter'd in the Records of the Office.

Liſt of the Knights of the Golden Fleece.
